

Ready Rosie Procedure

Regulations

EHS/HS: 1302.51

ECEAP: FEP-10

Purpose

To offer opportunities for parents to participate in a research-based parenting curriculum that builds on parents' knowledge and offers parents the opportunity to practice parenting skills to promote children's learning and development and is available in English and Spanish.

Procedure

Ready Rosie (RR) is a family engagement resource that facilitates family partnerships and supports powerful outcomes such as well-being, self-reliance, and school readiness. RR is aligned to the Head Start Early Learning Outcomes Framework and the Parent, Family, and Community Engagement Framework.

Each direct service staff will register for RR at the beginning of the year and be "assigned" to their classroom or caseload. Each family will receive an auto-generated video from RR each Monday.

Registering families for RR

- Teachers are responsible to support family's registration in RR.
- Home Visitors are responsible to support family's registration in RR.

Minimum Staff Engagement Level

- Teachers will send out an additional playlist at least once per quarter. Caseload documentation can occur as entry express in the Communication Log.
- Family Advocates will send an additional playlist to families at least once per quarter. Caseload documentation can occur as entry express in the Communication Log.
- Home Visitors will send out an additional playlist at least once per quarter. Caseload documentation can occur as entry express in the Communication Log.

Below are additional recommendations for how to integrate Ready Rosie in your center/caseload family engagement efforts.

Family Interactions	How to Integrate Ready Rosie
Orientation Initial Contact Home Visits	This is a great opportunity to introduce RR to families for the first time. You can create the excitement on how useful this resource is to families in engaging with their children. The goal is to highlight and inform that RR is a strengths-based engagement parenting curriculum help families understand how it works and set goals about how to use it throughout the year. Check out the Introducing RR to your Families article for tips and ideas.
Family Literacy or Math Event	Consider using these RR Family Workshops for your Family Gatherings or other group activities to extend literacy and math into the home and family life: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Words Matter! Building a Literacy-Rich Home Environment</li> <li>• Math Matters! Build a Math-Rich Home Environment</li> </ul>

Parent-Teacher Conferences Home Visits	Build meaningful partnerships with families during these times. They are key opportunities to suggest ideas, strategies, and resources to families. In addition, it aligns with MyTeachingStrategies to help support the child's goals.
Parent Volunteers	Families have an opportunity to volunteer by becoming RR ambassadors. You can provide RR training to families who can then work with other families to come up with creative ways to use RR throughout the program year.
Family Goal Setting	RR is a great resource to support families in creating S.M.A.R.T. (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, Timebound) Goals. Each RR video is aligned to requirements of the Parent, Family and Community Engagement Framework (PFCE). Whenever a parent watches RR videos, those alignments are tracked as "Family Outcome Opportunities" such as Family Well-Being, Positive Child-Parent Relationships, Families as Learners, Family Connections to Peers and Community and Families as Advocates and Leaders. When logged into your account, see the following resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Celebrating Success (Resource Tab)</li> <li>• Research and Answer (Library Tab)</li> </ul>
Communication	RR share gives you the ability to create custom playlists of content and share with families through a variety of formats and languages.
Transition Kindergarten Transitions	RR is a great resource to support families through transitions; the Family Workshops would be a great tool to use to support the transition process. RR "Give me 10" Workshops briefly explore what it means to be "ready" for kindergarten. When logged into your account, see the following resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ready for Kindergarten</li> <li>• The Family Role in Reading and Writing</li> <li>• The Family Role in Building Social Emotional Skill</li> </ul>
